

May Speakers' Forum!

Thursday, May 29, 2025; 11:30am – 2:00pm

Speaker: Delegate Chris Runion

35th House District in the Virginia General Assembly

Chris Runion is a lifelong conservative Republican from the Shenandoah Valley. He grew up on a farm where his parents worked hard and raised five sons. Chris graduated from Virginia Tech with a degree in accounting. After graduation Chris and his wife, Jennifer, settled in Bridgewater to start their family. While working for a large poultry company, Chris earned an MBA from James Madison University.

Later as a business owner, Chris served his community in a number of roles, including serving on the Rockingham Planning Commission and as president of the Harrisonburg-Rockingham Chamber of Commerce. Elected to the Virginia General Assembly in 2019, Chris has a track record in Richmond as being faithful, honest, transparent and accountable to the citizens of the 35th District. Delegate Runion serves on the Finance Committee, Labor and Commerce Committee, and Agriculture Chesapeake and Natural Resources Committee and numerous Subcommittees.

Chris has been a "Distinguished Friend" to Women for the American Constitution since its founding in 2020.
